

Cherish, Notice

[Intro:]

I think I'll write him a notice

[Verse 1:]

He lives on the 5th floor

I'm on the 1st floor

Whenever he comes down he hops in his 64

Casey and JoJo flows out of his window

And I can tell by what he drives he's a fly guy

And my body was off slow

I'm watchin him don't he know

At about 12:26, 'cause I'm in 12:26

I'm watching him when he comes home

And wonder why he's alone

If he only knew about the girl on level one

[Chorus:]

I think I'll write him a notice, a notice

So he can notice that I'm tryin' to get his attention

I wrote you a notice, a notice

Can you come on over and we can get better acquainted

I think I'll write him a notice, a notice

So he can notice that I'm tryin' to get his attention

I wrote you a notice, a notice

Can you come on over and P.S. don't forget my extension

[Verse 2:]

I'm waiting here patient

And my time is wasting

Should I make the first move before he is taken
