

Cheshire Grin, What Makes You Holy

What Makes You Holy
What was I to do
I couldn't live without
Somebody standing by my side
Everything was beautiful then
Things slipped away
What was I to say
How many reasons do I have to give
To prove my faith
If she could say those words to me
How could she feel the same
Where was I to go
I didn't know myself
Or how my life has used to be
Everything is strange right now
But things have to change
What makes you holy
If you speak to God ask why
My life is always turning
Does it keep him satisfied
What makes you holy
If you speak to God ask why
I'll always be the one
To make the sacrifice
How was I to feel
So many changes
Have affected how I treat myself
Never would occur to me
But would things be the same
Where did things go wrong
How many colors will I see
Until it's black or white
I can breathe the air right now
But it's thinning away
What makes you holy
If you speak to God ask why
I'll always be the one
To make the sacrifice
I'll always be there
