Chesney Kenny, A Lot Of Things Different

Chesney Kenny No Shoes, No Shirt, No Problems A Lot Of Things Different

I'd spend a lot more time in the pouring rain without an umbrella

Covering my head

And I'd stood up to that bully when he pushed and called me names

But I was too afraid

And I'd a gone on and saw Elvis that night he came to town

But mama said I couldn't

And I'd a went skinny dipping with Jenny Carson that time she dared me to But I didn't

Oh I, I'd done a lot of things different

I wished I'd a spent more time with my dad when he was alive Now I don't have the chance

I wish I had told my brother how much I loved him before he went off to war But I just shook his hand

And I wish I had gone to church on Sunday morning when my grandma begged me too But I was afraid of God

And I wish I would've listened when they said Boy, you're gonna wish you hadn't But I wouldn't

Oh I, I'd done a lot of things different

People say they wouldn't change a thing, even if they could Oh but I would

There was this red dress she wanted one time so bad she could taste it And I should've bought it, but I didn't She wanted to paint our bedroom yellow and trim it blues and greens But I wouldn't let her, wouldn't a hurt nuthin She loved to be held and kissed and touched but I didn't do it Not nearly enough And if I'd a known that dance was going to be our last dance I'd a asked that band to play on and on on and on

Oh I, I'd done a lot of things different

People say they wouldn't change a thing, even if they could Oh but I would Oh whoa Oh I, I'd done a lot of things different Oh I, I'd done a lot of things I think we've all do a lot of things different
