Confessin' My Love

I tossed and turned and tried counting sheep

When will I ever learn how I'll ever sleep

'Til you're by my side it's just a waste of time

Ain't no use tryin' to get you off my mind

So I guess I'll be confessin' my love, confessin' my love

There ain't gonna be no restin' at all 'cause I want you too much

I might get all embarrassed and a little tongue-tied

'Cause I ain't had no lessons in expressin' it right

Yes I guess I'll be confessin' my love to you tonight

Toughest thing to do is up and speak my mind

I've been wanting you for too long a time

I just can't take this anymore

'Bout to hear some knockin' on your front door

So I guess I'll be confessin' my love, confessin' my love

There ain't gonna be no restin' at all 'cause I want you too much

I might get all embarrassed and a little tongue-tied

'Cause I ain't had no lessons in expressin' it right

Yes I guess I'll be confessin' my love to you tonight
