

Chicago, 90 Degrees And Freezing

Here I am
In this broken town
Missing you
Wishing you were still around

Streets are full of people, happy
Heading on their way
Why am I the only one
Who's COLD on such a pretty day?

[Chorus:]
90 degrees and freezing
I'm out here on my own
I can't shake this feeling
That I'm really all alone
The Sun way up there shining
But down here on the ground
It's 90 degrees and freezing!

Right or wrong
This is how it is,
The love that kept me warm
Well, now it's his...

I remember how the heat in your eyes
Helped me find my way
How can I be left so cold inside
On such a pretty day...

[Chorus 2x]
