

Chicago, Love Will Come Back

I don't love you anymore
We've all heard those words before
Somebody takes your heart and then
Leaves you the pieces

Lying shattered on the floor
They say that when you close a door
Another one is waiting there
For you to open... if you believe!

[Chorus:]
Love will come back
Hit you when you least expect it
Fill in the cracks
Of a broken heart you thought
That you could never mend
You, you can start again!

When you're barely getting by
And it's hard to find the strength to try
And loneliness is all you've known
If you let go... then you will find...

[Chorus]

Oh, when you think you've lost the only way
All you really need
Is a little faith

[Chorus]

Just let love return to you
You can start again!
