

Chicago, The Greatest Love

It's a long distance love affair
Tender are the moments that they rarely share
They hope their time will come someday
When together with the Fraulein they'll steal away
It's the greatest love on earth
He's come from so far away to see
Is this his lifelong dream
Or just a fantasy?
He's dying inside
Dying of frustration, reaching out in hope
And he wants so hard to hide
Inside of her soul 'cause that's what he needs to cope
It's the greatest love on earth
Her lovin' eyes are all he wants to see
And he knows that in her heart
There lies his destiny
When she holds him in her arms
He can feel the warmth of her gentle ways
And when she kissed him it was just like making music
That no one else will ever play
It's the greatest love on earth
He's come from so far away to see
Is this his lifelong dream
Or just a fantasy?
It's the greatest love on earth
He's come from so far away to see
Is this his lifelong dream
Or just another fantasy?
