

Chicago, What Else Can I Say

Where are you taking me
I cant follow you there
What do you have in mind
You know that I dont care

Where do you think Im at
I thought I made it clear
Please dont follow me back down
While Im standing here

Early in the morning
Waiting for me to rise
The light of a new day dawning
Catches the sun in her eyes

Tonight tonight tonight
Im standing here
And its clear
I miss her
Tonight shes so far away
What else can I say
Because I know that shell never let me down
And I know that shes gonna love me too

Tonight tonight tonight
Im standing here
And its clear
I need her
Tonight shes so far away
What else can I say
Because I know that shell never let me down
And I know that shes gonna love me too
