

Chihiro Onitsuka, Brighten us

Lord knows who you are Lord knows where you are We walk the way home bringing clear and warm hearts Someone's grief is the sea Someone's hole is the woods We're drowned and wandering still singing like crying
"Wrong" and "Right" will be settled down Whenever we pray tenderly
He brightens our days
He brightens our ways
He brightens our faces
amazing, amazing
My joy and your joy
He brightens our days
He brightens our ways
He brightens our faces
amazing, amazing
My joy and your joy
amazing, amazing
My joy and your joy
amazing, amazing
My joy and your joy
