

Children Of Bodom, If You Want Peace... Prepare

"If You Want Peace... Prepare For War"

Go!

Pain ain't even really what you wanna be

5 feet under seeing what you gonna say

The opportunity too divide

The opportunity of being apart!!

Soon be there, the moon in the sky tonight

We're burning on a purified

Smash your face and then I beat it down

Are we really gonna die

Get up and fight, release your rage, come on and fight

Standing straight faced, it is your fate, calling my name

Calling me pain, and if you stay, you'll bite the scythe

Waiting for you I want to just tell you

If you want peace, prepare for war

Fuck!

Get up and fight, release your rage, come on and fight

Standing straight faced, it is your fate, calling my name

Calling me pain, and if you stay, you'll bite the scythe

Waiting for you I want to just tell you

Get up and fight, release your rage, come on and fight

Standing straight faced, it is your fate, calling my name

Calling me pain, and if you stay, you'll bite the scythe

Waiting for you I want to just tell you

If you want peace, prepare for war
