

Children Of Bodom, Red Light In My Eyes, part 2

Pulling the last cry, I was alive (alive!)
While I'm down in my hatred, weird, right (right!)
Your god has set you on fire, in the day you're dark your way
When we reached this final dusk then bring me fire and insanity
The jet-black eyes are showing butterflies, they dance in the fire insane, so [Chorus:]
Fire: dance with me
Fire: come with me
Fire: your fire
Of the everlasting flame, did burn me;
The one we are all off often struggling down, down, down, down
And when you hear me forth to the everlast, hear me used to bear dreams cast in a silent near Fire: you're killing me
Fire: a thorn, sweet, so rare
We'll praise the Lord to begin it Until the others will fall
But, victims are we all
We will at last destroy human gods and within us the fire is burning
The dream lives forth and we're standing strong to fight and the everlasting fire is burning
[Chorus:]
Fire: come with me
Fire: my god is with me
Fire: together (forever)
