

China Crisis, Seventeen

At Seventeen i used to lie in Bed wasting time working things out in my hEAD had enough of the life i'd seen left my Home when i was Seventeen at Eighteen i was living in a Dream getting on in the Music Scene no one could stop me i knew which way to go but where was i going well i didn't really know

CH.. life's a Bitch if you know what i mean leaving Home when you're Seventeen life on the Dole ain't no Rock n Roll packed my Bags and i was down the Road at Nineteen it was no longer a Dream my Dream became reality seeing the World and Places i'd never seen Rock n Roll life is the Life for me

CH.. my Life was a Bitch if you know what i mean said goodbye to my Folks at Seventeen Life on the Dole was no Rock n Roll had to get away from the Hell hole..
