

China Crisis, Sunrise On The Mersy

CH..

there's a Sunrise on the Mersey and i guess it looks kind of pretty with a glowing of Red and a hint of the Sun Summer is here the day has just begun

Five a.m in the Morning seems to be no one around the sound of Milk bottles in the distance the Milk Man's doing his round on the Waterfront Birds are flying by like a silhouette beneath the Morning Sky Ferrie's on the River passing by feel so happy life is one big high

CH..

and there's a Sunrise on the Mersey and i know it looks rather pretty with a glowing od Red and the rays of the Sun Summer is here a happy time for everyone the Liver Birds are standing tall guarding the City like a solid Brick Wall crossing the River the Water's a murky coloured Wine i feel so happy now now i'm feeling fine....
