

China Crisis, Wishing Time

China Crisis

Warped By Success

Wishing Time

Today i dreamt my life away

I don't feel anything

I wouldn't listen anyway

All that you feel (all you feel)

All that you feel

Keep your dreams your promises

This wishing time will heal (all you really feel)

Won't be fooled by what you see

The future lies with you and me

Together we can make this thing happen

You say that honesty should pay

You don't give anything

I wouldn't want it anyway

All that you feel (all you feel)

All that you feel

Keep your dreams your promises

This wishing time will heal (all you really feel)

Won't be fooled by what you see

The future lies with you and me

Together we can make this thing happen

I pray that each and every day

We still have the strength

To believe in what we say

All that you feel (all you feel)

All that you feel

Keep your dreams your promises

This wishing time will heal (all you really feel)
