

China Crisis, Without The Love

China Crisis

Warped By Success

Without The Love

Shelter from the hard rain in the night

Shelter from the hard rain by your side

Very nearly perfect by your side

I take you in my arms now, hold you tight

Where in the world would we be

Without the love you give

How can we live without

Without the love you give

Shelter in the hard times of no work

Shelter in the hard times and you're there

Somebody tie a red rose in your hair

Take you in my arms now, take you there
