Fiction Of Life

I've been expecting a breakout from a cage full of rage
But I, haven't got the time to hold them back with my Flak jacket
I've become a self made maniac
I have seen the bloodstains on the track
They were left when someone had to go from their flow trouble

Time, has taken all he had, there's nothing left inside
He's got to run or hide
He's got a mountain on his shoulder
He's not getting any younger
He's got to put his problems in his past
He's got to face up to the fictions of life
The fictions of life, fictions of life

He phoned the number to help his state
But it was engaged, bless him
So he chose a different route to help make the pain lessen

He become a self made maniac
He have seen the bloodstains on the track
They were left when someone had to go from their flow trouble

Time, has taken all he had, there's nothing left inside
He's got to run or hide
He's got a mountain on his shoulder
He's not getting any younger
He's got to put his problems in his past
He's got to face up to the fictions of life
The fictions of life

Time, has taken all he had, there's nothing left inside
He's got to run or hide
He's got a mountain on his shoulder
He's not getting any younger
He's got to put his problems in his past
