Take It Back

I'm sorry, I can't answer that, I want more time to let it sink in
I wouldn't hold your breath in fact I want more time for me to think this over

You've been hurt before, you can have another you can never say you know the score
You've been hurt before
Every time I see you fall I know you've been hurt before
Every time I see you fall, every time you fall, everytime you fall

Stupid words you said, you can take it back again
Stupid words you said, you can take them back again

I would like to believe you, I want more time for me to sink in Wouldn't hold your breath in fact I want more time for me to sink in, sink in

You've been hurt before, you can ever know that you can never say you know the score
You've been hurt before
Every time I see you fall I know you've been hurt before
Every time I see you fall, every time you fall, everytime you fall

Stupid words you said, you can take it back again
Stupid words you said, you can take them back again

You've been hurt before, you can ever know that you can never say you know the score
You've been hurt before
Every time I see you fall I know that you've been hurt before
Every time I see you fall, every time you fall, every time you fall

Stupid words you said, you can take it back again
Stupid words you said, you can take them back again
You can take them back again, you can take them back again
