

Chris Brown, Crawl

Everybody sees it's you
I'm the one that lost the view
Everybody says we're through
I hope you haven't said it too
So where do we go from here
With all this fear in our eyes?
And where can love take us now?
We've been so far down, we can still touch the sky
If we crawl 'til we can walk again
Then we'll run until we're strong enough to jump
Then we'll fly until there is no wind
So let's crawl, crawl, crawl
Back to love, yeah
Back to love, yeah
Why did I change the pace?
Hearts were never meant to race
Always felt the need for space
And now I can't reach your face
So where are you standing now?
Are you in the crowd of my vault?
Love, can't you see my hand?
I need one more chance, we can still have it all
If we crawl 'til we can walk again
Then we'll run until we're strong enough to jump
Then we'll fly until there is no wind
So let's crawl, crawl, crawl
Back to love, yeah
Back to love, yeah
Everybody see's it's you
Well, I never wanna lose that view
If we crawl 'til we can walk again
Then we'll run until we're strong enough to jump
Then we'll fly until there is no wind
So let's crawl, crawl, crawl
If we crawl 'til we can walk again
Then we'll run until we're strong enough to jump
Then we'll fly until there is no wind
So let's crawl, crawl, crawl
Back to love
