

Chris Cornell, Today

I have an injury
It's there for all to see
They pay to watch as the blood pours out
And it's my priviledge

Cause I'm in danger
Yeah I'm in danger
Yeah I'm in danger
Of losing my mind

The fasionation lives
Inside the world that spins
Around the scene of the accident
And they're most interested

When you're in danger
When you're in danger
When you're in danger
Of losing your mind
Of losing your mind

When I walk along the street
I see you all who know your sanity
Is hanging by a thread

I went to church today
To pray it all away
I watched the meek pass the hat around
But I'd already paid

Cause I'm in danger
Yeah I'm in danger
Yeah i'm in danger
Of losing my mind
Of losing my mind
Losing my mind
Losing my mind
