

Chris Isaak, Waiting For The Rain To Fall

You and I don't love each other,
We don't talk to one another,
I don't think you love anyone in this world at all.
I'm just waiting for the rain to fall.

Tears may fall and clouds may gather,
I should go I think I'd rather,
Wait until there's no chance left at all.
I'm just waiting for the rain to fall.
I'm just waiting for the rain to fall.

Rain will fall and leave me crying,
But there's no clouds up in the sky,
But you don't care there's no denying,
Cause there's no teardrops in your eyes.

You and I don't love each other,
We can only hurt each other,
I think there's no love left at all,
I'm just waiting for the rain to fall.
I'm just waiting for the rain to fall.
I'm just waiting for the rain to fall.
