Chris Isaak, Waiting (Phase One)

Here I stand and I'm waiting Here I stand and I'm waiting Here I stand and I'm waiting down Where I used to meet you down Where the world was our toy Here I stand and I'm wondering why Did you ever leave me Why Break the heart of that boy Here I stand with my heart in my hands and I offer love to you Here I stand with my world gone wrong and I wonder what to do

Here I stand and I'm waiting Here I stand and I'm waiting

Here I stand with my heart in my hands and I offer love to you Here I stand with my world gone wrong and I wonder what to do What to do

Here I stand and I'm waiting Here I stand and I'm waiting

Oh how I've missed you I wanted to kiss you I dreamt that I held you and I lost you again Lost you again (Here I stand and I'm waiting) And I lost you again (Here I stand and I'm waiting) And I lost you again (Waiting)
