

Chris LeDoux, Feels Like I'm Gettin' Into Something

Feel like I'm gettin' into something good
Don't want to stop, so I'm knocking on wood
I think my streak of bad luck is over
I'm rolling in a field of five leaf clovers
Feel like I'm swingin' on a lucky star
A choir of angels singin' in my heart
I'm smiling like I never thought I could
Feel like I'm gettin' into some kinda something good
I've had some heartaches, I've had some trouble
I've packed my limit of them low down blues
I've had some bad breaks, busted my bubble
Eyes underwhelmed and overdue
But now it's looking like them days are through
Feel like I'm gettin' into something good
Don't want to stop, so I'm knocking on wood
I think my streak of bad luck is over
I'm rolling in a field of five leaf clovers
Feel like I'm swingin' on a lucky star
A choir of angels singin' in my heart
I'm smiling like I never thought I could
Feel like I'm gettin' into some kinda something good
I'm going deeper, I'm gettin' stronger
Never knew fallin' could be so much fun
I'm a believer, my hearts a goner
And every second is second to none
What's even better is it's just begun
Feel like I'm gettin' into something good
Don't want to stop, so I'm knocking on wood
I think my streak of bad luck is over
I'm rolling in a field of five leaf clovers
Feel like I'm swingin' on a lucky star
A choir of angels singin' in my heart
I'm smiling like I never thought I could
Feel like I'm gettin' into some kinda something good
Feel like I'm gettin' into some kinda something
Feel like I'm gettin' into some kinda something good
