

Chris Malinchak, Stranger (ft. Mikky Ekko)

Baby, what's up?
What's the mystery alone?
'Cause I can't let it go, this feeling
I wanna be the one, wanna be the one you show

So let me be the Stranger
Who you love for the very first time
And know the only danger
Is that I'm giving you all of my pride

Is that I'm giving you all of my pride

So tell me what's missing
And where did all the good love go
'Cause I've been feeling so, so lonely
I wanna be the one, wanna be the one you show

So let me be the Stranger
Who you love for the very first time
And know the only danger
Is that I'm giving you all of my pride

Is that I'm giving you all of my pride

Can you see my love into my eyes?
Can you see my love on the other side?

So let me be the Stranger
Who you love for the very first time
And know the only danger
Is that I'm giving you all of my pride

Can you see my love into my eyes?
Can you see my love on the other side?
