

Chris Rea, I Saw You Coming

I saw you coming
With that poison in your hand
Now you're acting kind of funny
Like you don't seem to understand

Stop complaining
You've been caught fair and square
I saw you coming
I was guarding you that day

I saw you coming
Golden rule, you disobeyed
You were too busy showing off
How you gave yourself away

Stop complaining
You've been caught fair and square
I saw you coming
I was guarding you that day
I saw you coming
