Chris Rice, Nothin'

Lazy summer afternoon Screened in porch and nothin' to do I just kicked off my tennis shoes Slouchin' in a plastic chair Rakin' my fingers through my hair I close my eyes and I leave them there And I yawn, and sigh, and slowly fade away Deep enough to dream in brilliant colors I have never seen Deep enough to join a billion people For a wedding feast Deep enough to reach out and touch The face of the One who made me And oh, the love I feel, and oh the peace Do I ever have to wake up Awakened by a familiar sound A clumsy fly is buzzin' around He bumps the screen and he tumbles down He gathers about his wits and pride And tries again for the hundredth time

Deep enough to dream in brilliant colors I have never seen

Deep enough to join a billion people

'Cause freedom calls from the other side And I smile and nod, and slowly drift away

For a wedding feast

Deep enough to reach out and touch

The face of the One who made me

And oh, the love I feel, and oh the peace

Do I ever have to wake up

'Cause peace is pouring over my soul

See the lambs and the lions playin'

I join in and I drink the music

Holiness is the air I'm breathin'

My faithful heroes break the bread

And answer all of my questions

Not to mention what the streets are made of

My heart's held hostage by this love

And these brilliant colors I have never seen

I join a billion people for a wedding feast

And I reach out and touch the face of the One who made me

Deep enough to dream in brilliant colors I have never seen

Deep enough to join a billion people for a wedding feast

Deep enough to reach out and touch the face of the One who made me

And oh, the love I feel, and oh the peace

Do I ever have to wake up

Do I ever have to wake up

Do I really have to wake up now
