

Christian Walz, Hello

Singing a song it says I never let you go
Singing a song it says I never let you go
Singing a song it says I never let you go go go go go
On and on and on I go and then
On my knees I beg to start again
Honestly I find it starts to end
Starts to end

Chorus:

Is there anybody home? Hello
Is there anybody home? Hello
Does anybody know? Hello
Just say something
Why is everybody gone?
Why is everybody gone gone gone?
Just say something oh something I don't know
Just say something
Say something
Say something

In and out of clouds we're in a play
Now and then we're up above the rain
Let it be forever and a day and a day
In our song you loved me, we were bound
Lyrics said you'd always be around
Crucify the writer he's a clown, he's a clown!

Chorus:

Is there anybody home? Hello
Is there anybody home? Hello
Does anybody know? Hello
Just say something
Why is everybody gone?
Why is everybody gone gone gone?
Just say something oh something I don't know
Just say something
Say something
Say something
Could it be another way

X4

Chorus:

Is there anybody home? Hello
Is there anybody home? Hello
Does anybody know?
Just say something
Just say something
Is there anybody home?
Is there anybody home? Hello
Does anybody know?
Just say something
Just say something
Is there anybody home? Hello
Is there anybody home? Hello
Does anybody know?
Just say something
Say something
