Verse1:

Hey Girl, I hear you're havin' trouble with your boyfriend, again. And why do you keep playing it ghetto with him every day. By now you should know he's not treating you the way you deserve. Yeah, I can see that he's fine and we all know love gets you blind.

Bridge:

If it doesn't really benefit you, you'd be better off alone. Then it wasn't really meant to be, just move on.

Chorus:

If you wanta give it all you got. You gotta be the one to call the shots. Tell him all the secrets in your heart. From now on- you need to be the one to take control. Even if it means to let him go-oo-o-Let go! Gotta gotta, let go! Gotta gotta, gotta let it go! Gotta gotta, let go! Gotta gotta, gotta let it go!

Verse2:

I'm not the type of girl to let somebody else run my life. You won't see me crying 'cause I couldn't get along with some guy. I've never been down with anybody who wouldn't treat me right. Cuz I don't need nobody else, too make me feel good about myself.
