Chorus:

Snooze you gonna lose and she won't want you back again. The way you keep on playin' it's impossible to win. Soon you're going to see you have to up and end. You're going to hit and miss☐You snooze you lose baby!

Verse1:

Hey boy, you haven't been payin' attention to my friend. I know you think you're the man, the way you do your thing. And I bet you're havin' fun when you hag out with your boys. Well, your relationship with your girl is coming to an end.

Bridge:

You keep thinkin' that she won't leave. But again and again you go on and on and the next thing you'll know- she'll be gone!

Chorus:

Snooze you gonna lose and she won't want you back again. The way you keep on playin' it's impossible to win. Soon you're going to see you have to up and end. You're going to hit and miss☐You snooze you lose baby!

Verse2:

Now you're prolly don't believe me- i'm tellin' you it's true. 'Cause you told me she had a problem, her problem was you. So you're walkin' up in ice and I'm breakin' you the news. You better be on your toes, 'cause soon she's gonna go.

Bridge:

You keep thinkin' that she won't leave. But again and again you go on and on and the next thing you'll know- she'll be gone!

Chorus2x:

Snooze you gonna lose and she won't want you back again. The way you keep on playin' it's impossible to win. Soon you're going to see you have to up and end. You're going to hit and miss☐You snooze you lose baby!
