

Christina Milian, Twitch

Baby every now and then you disappear from this earth,
And where you been and where you go I don't know,
But when you didn't up for till 2 I'm like where was you,
Late again (you) didn't call on a cell that I brought.

(CHORUS)

I figured out when you open you mouth,
First you start forgettin' then your palms start sweatin',
Then you twitch, twitch,
You can't disguise when you're caught in a lie,
You always reply with a twitch, twitch.

It's true your body language told on you,
Tell me what'd you do,
First you lie, start to stutter,
What's your problem? I'm not your mother,
You're guilty and one day you gonna feel me,
But you should know it's not right,
It's not okay I wasn't born yesterday.

Speak up, I can't hear you,
What did you say boy wussup?
You so crazy acting this way, is there something,
In your eyes cuz you twitch when you look at mine.
