

Christine Owman, Familiar Act (feat. Mark Lanegan)

Are you disappointed with my answer
Am I disappointed with your question
Are you disappointed with my action
Am I disappointed in you

Trying to win using your familiar act beating her harder for each word that you lack

You got to beat her until she's clean
And tell your friends you don't fear her
You've got to beat her until she's clean
And tell yourself you don't fear her

Are you disappointed with my answer
Avoid think you're preventing a disaster
Are you disappointed with my action
I won't say I lead you into it

Trying to win using your familiar act beating him harder for each word that you lack

You got to beat him until he's clean
And tell your friends you don't fear him
You've got to beat him until he's clean
And tell yourself you don't fear him

You got to beat them until they're clean
And tell your friends you don't fear them
You've got to beat them until they're clean
And tell yourself you don't fear them
