Adults Afraid Of The Light

It's all coming back to me now darlin'

The things that I hide from are here

I used to run around late at night

Giving myself up without a fight

But now I see it, I see it clear

The truth is here, So come on hold me tight

'Cause I was not a child afraid of darkness

But an Adult Afraid Of The Light

It's all coming back to me now darlin'

The shadows I held in my arms

But my arms were weak, I let them slip away

Leaving me to face another day

And now i see it, I see it clear

The truth is here, So come on hold me tight

'Cause I was not a child afraid of darkness

But an Adult Afraid Of The Light

Opening, Open, Opening, Open every door

When It's A and not PM, I see

Now I see it clear the truth is here...

Adult Afraid Of The Light...

The truth is here, So come on hold me tight

'Cause I was not a child afraid of darkness

But an Adult Afraid Of The Light

Yes the truth is here, So come on hold me tight

'Cause I was not a child afraid of darkness

But an Adult Afraid Of The Light

Oh the truth... It's all coming back...

The things that I hide from... Are here
