

Christy Nockels, You Are Able

Jehovah, provider
The joy of man's desire it's You, always You
Keeper of history, glorious mystery
It's You, always You
Fulfillment of every longing of man
It's You, our God, it's You
You are able, higher is our God
Than anything that comes our way
Come what may You alone forever stay
You're able, higher is our God
Than anything that comes our way
Come what may You alone forever stay
You're able, You are able
Abba our Father
We run to our protector, You, always You
Healer of all things
We trust no other name but You, always You
Fulfillment of every longing of man
It's You, our God, it's You
You are able, higher is our God
Than anything that comes our way
Come what may You alone forever stay
You're able, higher is our God
Than anything that comes our way
Come what may You alone forever stay
You're able Lord, You are able
Keeper of history, glorious mystery
We trust no other name
Our hope is in You
Our hope is in You
You are able, higher is our God
Than anything that comes our way
Come what may You alone forever stay
You're able, higher is our God
Than anything that comes our way
Come what may You alone forever stay
You're able Lord, You are able
You are able, You are able, You are able
