

Chuck Berry, Too Pooped To Pop

Casey is an old man who wants to be a teen
He goes to all the dances and they call him cha-cha king
He cha-cha when the band is playin' rock and roll
He tries to keep in time but the beat leaves him cold.

(Chorus):

Because he too pooped to pop, too old a soul
Hips gettin' weaker when he tries to do the stroll
And every time his feet get to go in one way
Here comes a new dance and it goin' to stray.
Chicks told Casey, ou better move man,
This is only a one night stand & Casey was in time but he was dancin' awhile
Till a cramp caught his leg and he had to change his style.

2x Chorus

Casey finally learned to do the hoochie koo
This might have been fine back in '22
Now, I gonna give you fellows just a little tip
If you wanna keep your girl you better get hip
Or, youl be too pooped to pop, too old a soul
You hips are gettin' weaker when youl try to do the stroll
And every time your feet gettin' to go in one way
Here comes a new dance youl be left to stray.
