

Chuckie Akenz, Beat In My Heart

VERSE ONE :: KANGEL

i'm still chasin the same dreams i've had that builded up all this hope but then eventully crashed/and the drama doesn't pass, headaches are bound to last critics burn like a rash (too much, too fast)
i got the people showin love, and haters who got u stuck when you've tolerated enough, you just get so fed up/i decided to let it be, my passion can leave without me my faith got really shallow, my doubts got really deep/but when my parents let me down, my brother just aint around, my people doin their thing, that's when i know i gotta sing/one mic is all i need, one voice to show and tell, i got my heart and my dreams and threw it all down a wishing well/

BRIDGE :: KANGEL

you're gonna know this in time..
and when you think its all right..
your heart will make it a blur..
you gotta know if you're sure..
to hold on something that's real..
it's more than just how you feel..
you'll know for sure when its gone..
if you regret it then it was wrong..

CHOURS :: KANGEL

(woah yea) you gotta feel, the beat in my heart
to understand all the love i still got from the start/(it doesn't change)
you gotta feel, the beat in my heart
to understand all the love i still got from the start/(it doesn't change)
to understand all the love that's taking me far..
to understand all the love that's taking me far, so far..

VERSE TWO :: CHUCKIE

look at me now i bet you never thought i'd come this far but u see ive been on track on my path to be a star/n im tryin to set that bar that noone eva set before n its time i break da bets that said id end to trip n fall/fuck the world if dey say i cant make it n grip dis game i was nobody's son now da whole world know my name/n its funny how i did it cuz i only kept it real wit only hopes n dreams dat one day id get a deal/now look at me still, i never quit wat i done start i started wit a goal n now im finishin my part/fuck those that dont believe cuz i really dont care im making moves with my life u still standing right there, ya/

VERSE THREE :: KANGEL

sometimes the music and i--we don't agree like a relationship with problems to work out and proceed/always dreamin of hope for a better future to live it helps to open up our eyes, to stop actin like kids/and grow into an adult that has the right to speak out and be mature enough to handle all the pitiful doubts/you can ask me or chuckie why we're still makin our songs and in my point of view, i can't let go of this bond/music's attached to my heart and this time, i wont let go it's impacted my life so much now, it's just outta ma control/

CHOURS :: KANGEL

(woah yea) you gotta feel, the beat in my heart
(it doesn't change)
you gotta feel, the beat in my heart
to understand all the love i still got from the start/
(it doesn't change)

OUTRO :: KANGEL

i'm gonna know this in time..
and when i think it's all right..
my heart will make it a blur..
but now i know i'm for sure..
because i know that its real..
it's more than just how i feel..
i know if this was all gone..
i would regret it, and that'd be wrong
