

Chynna Phillips, All This Madness

I can feel disillusion in my head
And in my veins and under my skin
I'm breathing fast again

And blood can turn blue
Seven years of you

Chorus:
Cracks in the mirror
You looked away
You never show your face now
Cracks in the mirror
You looked away
And so you're lost in space now

I can sense a revolution in my heart
And in my deepest soul
I thought I told you so

And blood can turn blue
Seven years of you

(chorus)

Can he help it, can he fight it, can he help it...

All this madness

All this madness
All this madness
All this madness

Cracks in the mirror
You looked away
You never show your face now

Cracks in the mirror

Cracks in the mirror
You looked away
You never show your face now

Uh huh

Cracks in the mirror
You looked away
You never show your face now

Madness....

Cracks in the mirror
Cracks in the mirror

Madness....
