

Ciara, Don't Remember

What did I say to him last night?
I can't feel my face,
try to focus but my mind ain't right.
I remember the party,
the DJ, my homies, my man and me.
But the rest of it's blurry,
something I did made my baby go away.
Got the same clothes on today,
that I had on yesterday.
What did I do, what did I say?
But I don't remember,
guess I had too much to drink,
'cause I don't remember.
Oh, my car ain't outside,
how the hell did I get home?
Damn, did he drive me,
drop me off, got his stuff and got gone?
Can't call my homies,
'cause I'm looking and I just can't find my phone.
I need to talk to somebody.
Something I did made my baby go away.
Got the same clothes on today,
that I had on yesterday.
What did I do, what did I say?
But I don't remember,
I guess I had too much to drink,
'cause I don't remember.
Is he gone forever?
Man, I don't know,
I just don't remember.
Oh, wish I could play back,
from beginning to the end.
I think we started dancing,
I kinda remember a kiss there.
What a cute bartender,
with that remy, that henny that's cold and gin,
'cause I'm not a drinker.
Called in the morning,
my baby got away.
Got the same clothes on today,
that I had on yesterday.
What did I do, what did I say?
But I don't remember,
guess I had too much to drink,
'cause I don't remember.
Is he gone forever?
Man, I don't know,
I just don't remember.
Oh, baby, so intoxicated, had enough.
Oh, conversations, too much drinking, having fun.
What was I thinking? Just celebrating.
Oh, please forgive me, baby. I just don't remember.
