

Cinderella, Soul Creation By Cinder

I can't bite the hand
That's gonna feed me
You like to see me slide
This life of shadow mine

You and I, you and I

Your side of things
You wanna show me
Your fingers scratch my eyes
This time I'm going blind

You and I, you and I

You want it, you need it
You love it, you hate it
Soul creation

You seen it, you feel it
You touch it, believe it

You want it, you need it
You love it, you hate it
Soul creation

You seen it, you feel it
You touch it, believe it
Your salvation

I can't taste the poison
That I'm drinking
Your death is in disguise
I chose to say goodbye

You and I, you and I

You want it, you need it
You love it, you hate it
Soul creation

You seen it, you feel it
You touch it, believe it

You want it, you need it
You love it, you hate it
Soul creation

You seen it, you feel it
You touch it, believe it
Your salvation

(I'm about to break this)

You want it, you need it
You love it, you hate it
Soul creation

You seen it, you feel it

You touch it, believe it

You want it, you need it
You love it, you hate it
Soul creation

You seen it, you feel it
You touch it, believe it
Your salvation

You want it, you need it
You love it, you hate it
Soul creation

You seen it, you feel it

You want it, you need it
You love it, you hate it
Soul creation

You seen it, you feel it
