

Cindy Alexander, Time Falling Down

It may be part of the plan
that you'll take part of me
And I will wake up fine
I won't remember a thing

And I wonder while you sleep
Is it all a state of mind
Is falling in love with you
Just a matter of time
Or a matter of

Time Falling Down
Time Falling Down
Time Falling Down
on me

May be the way of the world to cheat us in this game
But you can start all over again
You won't remember my name

I know never again is just your state of mind Well what if forever wasn't a matter of time But just a matter of

Time Falling Down
Time Falling Down
Time Falling Down
on you

It only takes a moment to kill what we believe It only took a smile to bring me to my knees

It may be part of the plan
And I will wake up fine
and I won't feel a thing...

It's just a matter of
Time Falling Down
Time Falling Down
Time Falling Down on me...
