

Cinema Bizarre, Silent Scream

Was walking in the shadows
So nobody cared
Your smile led me from the distance
And without the smallest chance
All these memories
They come back
When Im asleep
Youve taken my dreams

I dont need no fakes around me
All I want is you to be with me
Here I am
All these words they have lost their meaning
I just hope you hear my silent scream

I still hear the distant voices
Spreading rumours and lies
I took you to my darkest places
So far from the sky

I watch on you
We made vows to not let go
But where are you now ?
