

Citizen Soldier, Screaming In Silence

I can't breathe
So sick of screaming in silence
This invisible violence locked inside of me

These walls in my head made of six feet of concrete
You built them yourself, saying you don't believe me
You just turn a blind eye everytime that I'm bleeding
And walking away from the scene of the crime makes you guilty

You like me more in my cage

I can't breathe
So sick of screaming in silence
This invisible violence locked inside of me
I can't breathe
So sick of screaming in silence
Like who I am is a crime
My neck is under your knee
I can't breathe

I can't breathe

You say it's my fault like I like to be lonely
Frame my pain as you like just so you can control me
Guess I'm playing the victim so you can look holy
So your ignorant bliss can keep killing me slowly

You like me more in my cage
And you make the rules in this game

I can't breathe
So sick of screaming in silence
This invisible violence locked inside of me
I can't breathe
So sick of screaming in silence
Like who I am is a crime
My neck is under your knee
I can't breathe

I can't, I can't breathe
I can't, I can't breathe
I can't, I can't breathe
I can't breathe

I can't, I can't breathe
I can't

I can't breathe
So sick of screaming in silence
This invisible violence locked inside of me
I can't breathe
So sick of screaming in silence
Like who I am is a crime
My neck is under your knee
I can't breathe

I can't breathe
I can't breathe
