City And Colour, As Much As I Ever Could

Ooh...

Love of mine Won't you lay by my side And rest your weary eyes Before we're out of time?

Give me one last kiss For soon, such distance Will stretch between our lips Now the day's losing light

Ooh...

Bring me your love tonight Bring me your love tonight

Lost at sea My heartbeat was growing weak Hoping you'd hear my plea And come save my life

As the storm grew fierce An angel was certainly near I knew there was nothing to fear

Bring me your love tonight Bring me your love tonight No, I am not where I belong Bring me your love tonight

No, I am not where I belong So shine a light and guide me home No, I am not where I belong So shine a light, guide me back home

Ooh...
