

Claire Voyant, Time & The Maiden

Is it real, can I see you?
Or is it just elusive dreaming?
Far and away are you Am I here in your breath?

Remnants of where you are I am Lost and how I wait for you holding on

After all this time I still carry my heart blind oh I am killing time with liars its all this time

It's in your voice all we are is nowhere that I am Lonely and I still wait for you holding on

After all this time I still carry my heart blind oh I am killing time with liars it's only time All this time recreating my mind eyes open wide to all this crime

After all this time I still carry my heart blind
After all this time I am still blind, Still Killing time with liars
All this time recreating my mind all this time
