

Clan Of Xymox, It's Not Enough

Waiting for the time you come by
Waiting for the time you comply
You said you still can look me in the eye
This can of worms is all I can buy
The one you love is the one you hurt the most
In my heart I feel like a ghost
If only you could see right through my eyes
Than you'd see it's the end of the line
I say it one more time, two wrongs don't make a right
I believe there's no chance to make it all worthwhile
I'd rather have some fun when you are not around
I'm turning down the light, I turn you down
When you call on me again
When you call, when you call on me again
When you call, when you call on me again
When you call on me again
I need some some air to breathe
I need some space
I need a way out of this maze
Letting go is all I can do
You cheat yourself and everyone else too
I talk to myself and try to be alone
It feels like heaven is coming down
And the news gets around
I it spills to every door
With all your secret hopes
You always wanted more
I never felt the bond, it was never carved in stone
I know you to the bone
It's not enough
When you call on me again
When you call, when you call me again
When you call, when you call on me again
When you call, when you call on me again
I say it one more time, two wrongs don't make a right
I believe there's no chance to make it all worthwhile
It's not enough for me
It's not enough
It's not enough
It's not enough
