

Clan Of Xymox, What's Going On

The way you look is pretty strong
The way you act, you do me wrong

Tell me, what's going on?
Tell me, what have I done?

Pour out your very heart
Pour it out from the start
What plays on in your mind?
Tell me, why leave me blind?

Like an actress on a stage
You avoid me like the plague
You keep me hanging in suspense
Rule out my existence

Tell me, what's going on?
Tell me, what went wrong?

Don't wait until the sky comes down
Why don't you raise your sulky frown?
Did we come to a breaking point?
And is it now all my fault?

Tell me, what's going on?
Tell me, what went wrong?
Tell me, what's going on?
Tell me, what went wrong?
