

Clannad, Why Worry?

courus -
why must i worry
try not to hurry like other people
cos you know yourself
this is not the way
who am i am to tell you lies and then say i didn't mean it at all you see me , you hear me but you don't know what i'm saying you feel it, you take it in your stride
when you call me
and we talk about the yesterdays it cheers me, it steers me to follow better reason to feel it, to take it
in our stride
why worry why worry
try not to hurry ,try not to hurry
this is not my way
