

Clapham South, Teen Highs

Incessant train of events shows
Conditions do appear to grow
Morning bell I understand
My life is in your hands
I walked the line to see you smile
I did the crime to make you mine
now I see my broken dreams
against real life

Incessant train of events shows
Conditions do appear to grow
Morning bell I understand
My life is in your hands
I walked the line to see you smile
I did the crime to make you mine
now I see my broken dreams
against real life

Ref:

Feelings feelings are just coming in to flower
Minute after minute becomes hour
I call you up to scream and shout
I get too high
than hit the ground
You falling in the dark Teen highs
Love can brings you wings of butterflies
Minute after minute becomes hour
I call you up
to scream and shout
I get too high
than hit the ground

Conditions do appear to grow
Morning bell I understand
My life is in your hands
I walked the line to see you smile
I did the crime to make you mine
Use my charm to steal and lie
To kill you in the dark
