

Claw Boys Claw, Sugarlite Blond

Stay away, I don't know where I'm standing, a dead dog, feel alright
I get it on, I need a face to laugh on but that is more of the same everynight

Sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond
They say my bones are the one understanding, I go down in the rear
You got me crawling to my heart's surrender
The state of phase you brought me in, you're no good
You got me howling at the moon tonight, understood
You got me howling at the moon tonight, hear me say
You got me howling at the moon tonight, come on babe
You got me howling at the moon tonight, just stay and get your way

Sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond
You're my sugarlite blond

You got me howling at the moon

Sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond
You're my sugarlite blond

Stay away, I don't know where I'm standing, a dead dog, feel alright
I get it on, I need a face to laugh on but that is more of the same everynight
You're no good, sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond
You're my sugarlite blond
Sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond, you got me howling at the moon tonight
You're my sugarlite blond
