Clawfinger, Dirty Lies

You treat me like I'm fucking useless What makes you think I even care I think this whole affair is fruitless And it won't lead to anywhere I never said you had to like me I never shove shit down your throat When you still act like you're above me With all that heartless crap you wrote

You try to suffocate me, you try to violate me, you try to fill me with all your dirty lies
You try to ridicule me, but I wont let you fool me, cause you're so pitiful and easy to despise (easy)

What have you done that might impress me, cant think of anything at all Don't even want you to adress me, it's not like you make the calls, You compensate your lack of talent. Talentlessly slagging what you hate How does it feel to kill a deputant? So you can put food on your plate

You try to suffocate me, you try to violate me, you try to fill me with all your dirty lies You try to ridicule me, but I wont let you fool me, cause you're so pitiful and easy to despise (easy)

I don't know how to raid a failure, so I got nothing more to say And I'm so sick of your behavior, so watch me when I walk away

You try to suffocate me, you try to violate me, you try to fill me with all your dirty lies You try to ridicule me, but I wont let you fool me, cause you're so pitiful and easy to despise (easy)

You try to suffocate me, you try to violate me, you try to fill me with all your dirty lies You try to ridicule me, but I wont let you fool me, cause you're so pitiful and easy to despise (easy)
