

Clay Crosse, Stained Glass Window

Just beneath the rafters
In a church of stone
Laid a stained glass window
In the attic all alone

A work of art forgotten,
A treasure thrown away
Taken from the sunlight,
It was just a useless frame

Chorus:
Ooh the things in life we take for granted
Ooh the things of wonder we could know
Ooh I want to be illuminated
Full of Heaven's light
Shining through my life
Let the window of my heart reveal Your love

I took the stained glass window
And held it to the light
Years of hidden glory
Reappeared before my eyes

Every brilliant color
Glowing like a fire
Full of revelation
And created to inspire

Repeat chorus

Chant:
Thirsting for the morning sun
I am Yours, Thy will be done
Let Your love in me unfold
With it's beauty to behold.

There's a stained glass window
In the soul of a man
A pattern of perfection
That was made with holy hands
And with the light of heaven
Pouring through each pane
Truth in all its splendor
Is revealed and will remain.
