Clay Walker, How To Make A Man Lonesome

(Randy Boudreauz/Kim Williams) Three weeks in Phoenix one night to go Youe lookin?too good and youe standing to close That song on the jukebox Your dance-with-me smile Has got me thinkin?of someone I haven seen in a while You sure know how to make a man lonesome I see so much of my woman in you You sure know how to make a man lonesome But she knows how to keep her man true Yes, I know that it early Why am I leaving so soon Well, it too warm in here And it me not the room And the way that youe starin? Ie seen that look before Youe makin?me want her all that much more You sure know how to make a man lonesome I see so much of my woman in you You sure know how to make a man lonesome But she knows how to keep her man true You sure know how to make a man lonesome But she knows how to keep her man true
